INTERGENERATIONAL CONFERENCE

Dear guests,

Gaius Lucilius, a Roman satirist in ancient times, said that „from an early age one should already be mindful of old age." And this simple maxim can be used the other way round, don´t you think?

It is well established that connecting generations has a beneficial effect on different areas of our lives. While more generations living together under one roof was common in the past, it has become a rarity in recent decades.

Bringing generations closer has been our long-term ambition and something we're continuously working on. We believe we've made progress in this area. In particular, our focus has been on the youngest and the eldest. Bringing generations together is something of a melting pot, combining traditional values, wisdom and insight with fresh views of the world, relentless energy and drive.

Regardless of the age, there is though one thing we all have in common – we enjoy each other's presence!

Our mission is to promote intergenerational activities beyond the borders of the Czech Republic, hence we were excited about the opportunity to roll out this activity in 2017 within the European Erasmus + program. We planned the project, invited our European partners from Germany, France, Slovenia and Poland and got to work. With the project almost over now, we are proud to share with you the findings, outcomes and plans that we have achieved in the field of intergenerational cooperation in Europe.

It is our hope that you too will take away new insights and inspiration from this meeting, exchange ideas and share your experience, meet new people and have fun in the process.

We appreciate your participation in this event and look forward to seeing you around!
